Insight Catastrophe Group Appoints Daniel Brooks Clark as Chief Underwriting Officer

New York, NY, March 31, 2009 – Insight Catastrophe Group, an insurance portfolio manager and risk advisor to new and existing sources of capital, today announced the appointment of Daniel Brooks Clark as senior vice president and chief underwriting officer of Coastal Risk Underwriters, LLC. In this position, Mr. Clark will lead product development and oversee the underwriting of all personal lines products.

“Brooks brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to Insight and Coastal Risk Underwriters,” said Andrew DiLoreto, chief executive officer of Insight Catastrophe Group. “I am thrilled that he has joined our team. He fills a critical position on our senior management team and will help build and enhance our capabilities as the leading residential property program administrator in the United States.”

Before joining Insight, Mr. Clark served as a consultant to the P&C industry where he focused on building sophisticated underwriting and pricing programs for clients, including the use of predictive modeling. He also served as senior vice president at Travelers Property Casualty where he was responsible for product management for the personal lines business. Mr. Clark began his career at Aetna and spent his early years in various actuarial and underwriting capacities.

"I am excited about the opportunity to join the Insight team," said Mr. Clark. "With my expertise in underwriting and pricing and Insight's revolutionary technology and exceptional catastrophe underwriting and risk management capabilities, we will be able to create a leading-edge homeowners underwriting platform."

Mr. Clark is a Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society and holds a Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics and Economics from Williams College.
